ㅜ · CHEON · SKY

Cheonkwon is the sky: the unseen energy and fixed laws behind everything that changes, which people should follow in mind and action. The floor line is ㅜ, a wide bar for the heavens with a stem below it for the light that reaches the earth. You start at the foot of the stem, go up it toward ga, work along the bar to ra and to da, come back down the stem toward na and finish where you began. Slow movements follow the breath.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

- Ap seogi · walking stance. One natural step, feet almost in line.
- Ap kubi · front stance. About 1½ steps long, one fist wide, front knee bent.
- Dwit kubi · back stance. Heels in line, rear foot turned out, weight on the bent rear leg.
- Beom seogi · tiger stance. Short, front foot on the ball, weight on the bent rear leg.
- Nieunja seogi · ㄴ-shaped stance. Feet at right angles, about one foot apart, knees slightly bent.
- Juchum seogi · horse stance. Feet wide and parallel, knees bent and pushed out.
- Ap chagi · front kick from the rear leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Front-stance chips are filled. Back-stance chips have a double outline.

PRACTICE NOTES

HOW THE DIAGRAM READS

You start at na facing ga (the bottom of the page). Figures on the left and right are seen from the side; centre figures face you going toward ga and show their back returning toward na. Horse- and crane-stance figures face the way the body faces.
