I · CHOONG-MOO · THE ADMIRAL

Choong-Moo is the title given to Admiral Yi Sun-sin of the Joseon (Yi) dynasty, credited with the armoured turtle ship (geobukseon) of 1592. The pattern ends with a left-hand attack for his early death, before he could show his full ability. The diagram is I. You start in parallel ready stance in the middle of the A–B line facing D: knife-hand blocks and strikes and a fingertip thrust to B and A; down the stem, a side kick back toward C and a flying side kick toward D; on the E–F line, a grab and knee kick, a reverse knife-hand strike, turning and back kicks; back up toward C, a U-shape block, a jumping spin, fingertip thrusts and a back fist; then to B and A, a double forearm block, a block and back fist in sitting stance, two side kicks, an X-knife-hand checking block, a twin palm block, a rising block and a final left punch.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Gojung sogi · fixed stance. Like the L-stance but a little longer, weight even on both legs. Named by the front foot.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Guburyo sogi · bending stance. Stand on the bent red leg, the other foot lifted beside its knee, ready to kick. Named by the standing leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
