I · JOONG-GUN · THE PATRIOT

Joong-Gun is named after the patriot An Jung-geun, who shot Ito Hirobumi, the first Japanese resident-general of Korea. The 32 movements stand for his age when he was executed in Lushun prison in 1910. The diagram is I. You start feet together in the middle of the A–B line facing D: reverse knife-hand blocks, low side kicks and upward palm blocks to B and A; guarding blocks, upper elbow strikes and twin-fist punches down the stem; back fists, releases and high punches to E and F; then back up toward C with double forearm blocks, punches and side kicks, slow palm pressing blocks, a slow angle punch, and two U-shape blocks where you began.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Gojung sogi · fixed stance. Like the L-stance but a little longer, weight even on both legs. Named by the front foot.

Dwitbal sogi · rear foot stance. Short, front foot on its ball, almost all the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one is a right rear foot stance.

Nachuo sogi · low stance. A longer, lower walking stance. Named by the front foot.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES

HOW THE DIAGRAM READS
