I · DAN-GUN · THE FOUNDER

Dan-Gun is named after the holy Dangun, the legendary founder of Korea in 2333 BC. The diagram is I: two bars joined by a stem. You start in the middle of the A–B bar facing D, block and punch to B and A, drive four steps down the stem to D, turn 270° for twin forearm blocks and punches to E and F on the far bar, rise back up the stem toward C with four rising blocks, then turn 270° again for knife-hand strikes and punches to B and A. Every punch in the pattern is a high punch.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

PRACTICE NOTES
