+ · CHON-JI · HEAVEN AND EARTH

Chon-Ji means heaven and earth: the creation of the world, so it is the first pattern a beginner learns. It has two halves, one for heaven and one for earth, both on a cross. You start where the lines meet facing D. The first half is low blocks and punches in walking stance to B, A, D and C; the second is inner forearm blocks in L-stance and punches, to A, B, C and D, ending with a step forward and two steps back.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

PRACTICE NOTES

HOW THE DIAGRAM READS
