I · HWA-RANG · THE FLOWER YOUTH

Hwa-Rang is named after the Hwarang, a corps of young men of the Silla kingdom that began in the early 7th century. The 29 movements stand for the 29th Infantry Division, where taekwondo grew up. The diagram is I. You start feet together in the middle of the A–B line facing D: a palm pushing block and two punches in sitting stance; a twin forearm block, upward punch, side punch, knife-hand downward strike and punch toward A; low block, punches and a side kick down the stem toward D; guarding blocks, a fingertip thrust and two fast turning kicks on the E–F line; punches in L-stance and an X-fist pressing block back toward C, ending with an elbow thrust; then side front blocks in closed stance and guarding blocks to B and A.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Gojung sogi · fixed stance. Like the L-stance but a little longer, weight even on both legs. Named by the front foot.

Soojik sogi · vertical stance. Short, about one shoulder width, legs straight, the rear foot turned out and a little more weight on it. Named by the rear foot, like the L-stance.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
