土 · KWANG-GAE · THE KING WHO EXPANDED THE REALM

Kwang-Gae is named after Gwanggaeto the Great, the 19th king of Goguryeo, who won back the lost territories including much of Manchuria. The diagram 土 (earth) stands for that recovered land, and the 39 movements for the first two figures of 391, the year he came to the throne. You start in parallel stance with a heaven hand in the middle of the A–B line facing D: slow upset punches, double steps with palm hooking blocks and sliding knife-hand low guarding blocks down toward D; palm upward blocks back toward C; pressing and side kicks to E and F from closed stance with knife-hand and side-fist strikes; slow palm pressing blocks in low stance; stamping back fist strikes and double forearm blocks along the C–D line; then twin fist punches, front kicks, guarding blocks and high punches to A and B.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Dwitbal sogi · rear foot stance. Short, front foot on its ball, almost all the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one is a right rear foot stance.

Nachuo sogi · low stance. A longer, lower walking stance. Named by the front foot.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
