十 · MOON-MOO · THE KING

Moon-Moo honours Munmu, the 30th king of Silla. By his wish his body was buried in the sea near Daewangam (the Great King's Rock), so that his soul might defend his land against the Japanese for ever; the Seokguram stone grotto is said to have been built to guard his tomb, and it is a fine example of Silla culture. The 61 movements stand for the last two figures of 661, the year he came to the throne. You start in parallel ready stance facing D: slow double side kicks, fingertip thrusts, reverse hooking kicks and jumps into X-stance to B and A; palm pressing blocks and slow high-and-low knife-hand blocks on one leg; slow back kicks; palm blocks, side front kicks, side fist strikes, scooping blocks, pushing kicks and reverse turning kicks along the C–D line; high twisting kicks and back fist strikes; sweeping, checking and thrusting kicks with knife-hand strikes; jumps into X-stance with low punches, a mid-air spinning kick, and an arc-hand block and high punch to finish.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Dwitbal sogi · rear foot stance. Short, front foot on its ball, almost all the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one is a right rear foot stance.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Kyocha sogi · X-stance. One foot crossed behind the other, resting on its ball; usually after a jump.

Waebal sogi · one-leg stance. Stand on the red leg, the other foot drawn up to the side of its knee joint. Named by the standing leg.

Guburyo sogi · bending stance. Stand on the bent red leg, the other foot lifted beside its knee, ready to kick. Named by the standing leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
