土 · TOI-GYE · THE SCHOLAR

Toi-Gye is the pen name of the scholar Yi Hwang (16th century), an authority on neo-Confucianism. The 37 movements stand for his birthplace on the 37th parallel, and the diagram 土 means scholar. You start feet together in the middle of the short A–B line facing D: inner forearm blocks, low fingertip thrusts and slow back-fist strikes behind to B and A; an X-fist pressing block, twin punch, kick and punches down the stem; a slow twin elbow thrust and six stamping W-shape blocks along the long E–F line; a grab and knee kick; guarding blocks, low kicks and fingertip thrusts back up toward C; a jump into X-stance; then guarding and circular blocks to B and A and a final punch in sitting stance.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Kyocha sogi · X-stance. One foot crossed behind the other, resting on its ball; usually after a jump.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
