I · GE-BAEK · THE GENERAL

Ge-Baek is named after Gyebaek, a great general of the Baekje kingdom (7th century). The diagram, a single line, stands for his severe and strict military discipline. The whole pattern stays on the C–D line, starting in parallel ready stance at its centre facing D: an X-knife-hand checking block and twisting kick; punches, rising and low blocks; a double arc-hand block looking toward AD; scooping blocks, punches and back fists in sitting stance on the diagonals; guarding blocks, low kicks and fingertip thrusts toward C; 9-shape blocks; a turning kick and flying side kick; an elbow strike into the palm and a jump into X-stance; reverse knife-hand and middle-knuckle strikes; stamping W-shape blocks; and rising blocks with punches to finish.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Nachuo sogi · low stance. A longer, lower walking stance. Named by the front foot.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Kyocha sogi · X-stance. One foot crossed behind the other, resting on its ball; usually after a jump.

Guburyo sogi · bending stance. Stand on the bent red leg, the other foot lifted beside its knee, ready to kick. Named by the standing leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
