山 · JUCHE · SELF-RELIANCE

Juche is the idea that people are masters of everything and decide everything, masters of the world and of their own destiny. The diagram, 山, stands for Mount Baekdu. Choi Jung Hwa's ITF teaches the same 45 movements under the name Kodang, after the patriot Cho Man-sik; its 45 movements stand for 1945, the year Korea was freed. You start in parallel stance with twin side elbow facing D: parallel blocks and a hooking block in sitting stance; side and reverse hooking kicks from a one-leg stance; a jump into X-stance with a back fist; hooking and side kicks, a fingertip cross-cut and a high elbow strike; a reverse knife-hand block and a spinning mid-air knife-hand strike; the same to the other side; a pick-shape kick; then straight elbow thrusts, arc-hand strikes, dodging hooking kicks, a flying two-direction kick, a back kick and a flying punch along the C–D line.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

- Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.
- Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.
- Dwitbal sogi · rear foot stance. Short, front foot on its ball, almost all the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one is a right rear foot stance.
- Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.
- Sasun sogi · diagonal stance. A sitting stance with one foot about half a foot ahead of the other. Named by the front foot; drawn as the sitting stance.
- Kyocha sogi · X-stance. One foot crossed behind the other, resting on its ball; usually after a jump.
- Waebal sogi · one-leg stance. Stand on the red leg, the other foot drawn up to the side of its knee joint. Named by the standing leg.
- Guburyo sogi · bending stance. Stand on the bent red leg, the other foot lifted beside its knee, ready to kick. Named by the standing leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
