乙 · UL-JI · THE GENERAL

Ul-Ji is named after General Eulji Mundeok, who defended Korea in 612 against an invasion force of nearly a million soldiers led by Yang Je; with hit-and-run tactics he destroyed a large part of it. The diagram 乙 is his surname. The 42 movements stand for the age of the author (General Choi Hong Hi) when he designed the pattern. You start in parallel stance with an X-back hand facing D: a twin side fist strike, X-fist and X-knife-hand blocks and a knife-hand strike; back hand, elbow and back fist strikes in sitting stance with a crescent kick; twin elbow thrusts, an X-stance and a side kick; a twin knife-hand block and mid-air spinning kick toward B; a jump into X-stance; rising block, front kick, punch and fingertip thrust; then on the E–F line a flying high kick, checking, pressing and wedging blocks, twin punches, guarding blocks, turning and back kicks, circular blocks and two punches in sitting stance to finish.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Gunnun sogi · walking stance. About 1½ shoulder widths long and one wide, front knee bent over the heel, rear leg straight. Named by the front foot.

Niunja sogi · L-stance. Feet at right angles, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, most of the weight on the bent rear leg. Named by the rear foot: this one, left foot forward, is a right L-stance.

Gojung sogi · fixed stance. Like the L-stance but a little longer, weight even on both legs. Named by the front foot.

Annun sogi · sitting stance. Feet parallel, about 1½ shoulder widths apart, knees bent and pushed out, weight even.

Kyocha sogi · X-stance. One foot crossed behind the other, resting on its ball; usually after a jump.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Walking-stance chips are filled; L-stance chips have a double outline. Directions are the ITF letters: you start facing D, with B on your left and A on your right.

PRACTICE NOTES
