基礎 · KICHO · BASICS

A basic form taught by many schools before Taegeuk Il Jang. It uses one stance (front stance), one block (low block) and one punch (middle punch), so a new student can concentrate on stepping, turning and chambering. The floor line is an I: across the starting line, down the middle, across the far line, back up the middle, and across the starting line again. Basic forms are not set by the Kukkiwon and every school has its own version; this page draws the 20-movement version charted by Taekwondo Preschool.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

Ap seogi · walking stance. One natural step, feet almost in line.

Ap kubi · front stance. About 1½ steps long, one fist wide, front knee bent.

Ap chagi · front kick from the rear leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Front-stance chips are filled.

PRACTICE NOTES

HOW THE DIAGRAM READS

You start at na facing ga (the bottom of the page). Figures on the left and right are seen from the side; centre figures face you going toward ga and show their back returning toward na. Horse- and crane-stance figures face the way the body faces.
