士 · SEONBI · THE LEARNED WARRIOR

Named for the Goryeo dynasty, whose people held off the Mongol invasions. The floor line is 士 (seonbi): a scholar who carries a warrior's strength and conviction. It opens from the pushing-hands ready posture.

READING THE FOOTPRINTS

- Ap seogi · walking stance. One natural step, feet almost in line.
- Ap kubi · front stance. About 1½ steps long, one fist wide, front knee bent.
- Dwit kubi · back stance. Heels in line, rear foot turned out, weight on the bent rear leg.
- Juchum seogi · horse stance. Feet wide and parallel, knees bent and pushed out.
- Ap chagi · front kick from the rear leg.

Red foot leads; the blue tick is the direction you face. Front-stance chips are filled. Back-stance chips have a double outline.

You start at na facing ga (the bottom of the page). Figures on the left and right are seen from the side; centre figures face you going toward ga and show their back returning toward na. Horse- and crane-stance figures face the way the body faces.
